Attorney for Governor-elect Smith Obtains Delay on Inspection of Ballots.

LONG FIGHT IS PROMISED

Slight Variations in Vote in Official Count Favor the Governor.

On the plea of Abram I. Elkus, counsel for Alfred E. Smith, that he had not had time to examine the papers. Justice Gavekan in the Supreme Court yesterday adjourned until Monday argument in the ation of Gov. Charles S. pleted of 729 votes for the Governor. When the New York county canvassers adjourned last night they were on the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteen and Sixteenth districts. Alderman Gilmore, chairman of the board, said there had been no change during the day. Fuchs, counsel for the Governor, discovered yesterday that he had been in error in his figures the night before and that Alderman Gilmore's claim of a gain for Smith of 199 was correct. Brooklyn reported a net gain of 54 votes for Smith in the First and Second Assembly districts.

Gov. Whitman was in the city yesterday and will be here until Monday. He had no comment to make on the election. Chairman Glynn of the Republican State Committee returned to Syracuse yesterday.
